

Example Curriculum Plan for the Master's Degree Program M.A. History and Societies of the Islamic World

Semester	Core Area of Study				Inter- and Transdisciplinary Elective Modules
	Required Modules		Required Elective Modules
1 (30 credit points)	Islamic History I (10 credit points)	Theory and Methodology: What Is Islam? (5 credit points)		Research Colloquium – West Asia and North Africa or Research Colloquium – Islam in Europe (10 credit points)	Turkish Reading – Focus on Literature or Relevant Language or Interdisciplinary Module (5 credit points)	Interdisciplinary Module (5 credit points)
2 (30 credit points)	Islamic History II (10 credit points)		Normative Orders in Muslim Societies or		Turkish Reading – Focus on History, Culture and Society or Relevant Language or Interdisciplinary Module (5 credit points)	Interdisciplinary Module (5 credit points)
3 (30 credit points)	Culture, Knowledge and Religion in Muslim Societies (10 credit points)		Normative Orders and Religious Plurality in Europe (10 credit points)	Politics and Society – West Asia and North Africa or Politics and Society – Islam in Europe (10 credit points)	Internship or Relevant Language or Interdisciplinary Module (5 credit points)
4 (30 credit points)	Research Design (5 credit points)
	Master's thesis, including presentation of results (25 credit points)					