GLOBAL NETWORK

Alumni network

At Frankfurt School, we like to cultivate close relationships with our alumni. We also, maintain an active online network for our alumni to share career-related information and extend their own professional and personal connections.

Stay connected with the diverse community of international professionals with a wide range of business backgrounds and industries. Learn from each other during the programme, share experience and knowledge. Create a relevant network that will not only open new doors and perspectives but also creates friendships and support for a lifetime. Use the opportunity to meet interesting and inspiring people outside the classroom, during a module abroad, networking events and executive talks, as well as site and company visits.

Inspiring people

Enjoy the privilege of learning from renowned professors and experienced practitioners who lead the way in innovative approaches to global business, strategic management and inspirational leadership. Interact closely with exciting guest speakers and fellow executives from around the world. Benefit from the varied experience, unique expertise and different viewpoints of a professionally and culturally diverse class.

Lifelong learning

Once a year, MBA graduates delve back in at no cost, accessing a choice elective and special FS gatherings, including "In the Boardroom" Executive Talks. This perpetual learning gateway keeps you intertwined with innovation and at business trends' helm.
