Overview Elective module

Elective module I-V	Trends in food and nutritional sciences (OE5049)
	Consumer behaviour and consumer science (OE5014)
	Corporate Social Responsibility in the food industry (OE5050)
	Clinical (medical) nutrition (OE5106)
	Sustainable everyday nutrition (OE5107)
	Food quality and product tests (OE5108)
	Psychology: Effectiveness of nutritional interventions and accompanying research (OE5109)
Elective module VI	Interdisciplinary Project Week (HS1010) or from the range of master's programs offered by all departments at Fulda University of Applied Sciences

All of the above modules must be completed during the course of study. Unless other requirements apply, the order in which they are taken is freely selectable. Since modules OE5040 and OE5041 build on each other, it is recommended that the modules be taken in the correct order. The modules Research Project and Research Colloquium must be taken over 3 semesters

 Equivalent possible, see table*
