IN-EAST, 22.03.2021

Study Program Structure MA CEAS (Studienverlaufsplan)

Semester 1 (winter):

- ✓ 3 introductory modules on Disciplinary Approaches (DA 1 East Asia in the Social Sciences, DA 2 East Asia in Economic Science, DA 3 Transnational Perspectives on East Asia)
- ✓ Language course of your choice (Chinese, Japanese, Korean): Level I

Semester 2 (summer):

- ✓ 2 Advanced East Asian Studies modules (out of the AEAS modules offered in summer semester)
- ✓ 1 Elective Module or 1 additional Advanced East Asian Studies module (out of the E modules and AEAS modules offered at the time)
- ✓ Language course of your choice (Chinese, Japanese, Korean): Level II

Semester 3 (winter):

- ✓ 2 Advanced East Asian Studies modules (out of the AEAS modules offered in winter semester)
- ✓ 1 Elective Module or 1 additional Advanced East Asian Studies module (out of the E modules and AEAS modules offered at the time)
- ✓ Language course of your choice (Chinese, Japanese, Korean): Level III

Semester 4 (summer):

- ✓ Master thesis (and seminar/individual supervision attached to Master thesis
  The 4th semester is also an potential window of mobility for doing an internship or studying abroad

Course selection is discussed with the coordinator and/or the MA supervisor before the beginning of each semester in an individual mentoring meeting.

Students admitted with additional CP requirements (Auflagenfächer) might have individual, divergent study program plans which are determined together with the coordinator in the mentoring meeting.

Further information on all modules and courses can be found in the Examination Regulations and Module Handbook in the download section.